IN THE OLD CITY WORKS DEPART. MENT OF BROOKLYN. valter Caler's Expert Accountants Report

That Payments Have Been Made to Conore Much in Excess of the Amounts That Were Specified in the Contracts. Comptroller Coler made public yesterday mather report of the expert accountants employed on the books of the old City Works Denent of Breoklyn, apparently showing additional evidence of crooked work in relation to the awarding of contracts. The report of the accountants indicates that E. J. McKeever & Browho had the contract in 1897 for cleaning out sewers and sewer basins, received in one stance $14.511.56 in excess of their bid and $11,649.06 in excess of the highest tender for work. On Jan. 21, 1897, the accountants may, the contract for cleaning the sewer basins Brooklyn was awarded to the McKeevers for $5,187.50. A copy of the contract, however, ows that it was agreed that the amount to be expended on the work was "not to exceed 1,000." The report then calls attention to the following facts:

"That the highest proposal received according to the minutes of Dec. So, 1896, was that of George

"That the lowest was that of E. J. McKesver & nother for $5,137.50, and that on this proposal they rere awarded the contract executed Jan. 31, 1897, for cleaning sewers and sewer basins for the first

"That notwithstanding that McKeever & Brother's al was for $5,197.50, the centract executed stated that the amount of the centract was not to exceed $8,000, and that the centract was certified by troller for that amount.

That the amount of bills audited and charged to this contract is $7,720.95. "That in addition to the above there was paid to E.
J. McKeever & Bro., at the prices named in their contract of Jan. 21, 1897, the sum of $11,928.11. "That the bills on account of and properly charge-able to the contrast were rendered and paid promptly. "That the additional bills were not rendered and approved until several months after the work had

"That the bill for May was approved and audited July 2, 1897, and held in the Comptroller's office until Aug. 18, 1897, the date of payment."

on May 19, continues the report, a centract was let to the McKeevers, who were the lowest bidders, for cleaning the sewers and basins for $8,046,88. The contract appears to have been certified by George W. Palmer, Comptroller, for $20,000 on June 29, and bills to the amount of $19,857.52 were audited and paid on its account. In addition to that the experts say that there are three bills unsudited in the Auditor's effice in the berough of Brooklyn amounting to $2,473.80.

In connection with this contract the experts

"That notwithstanding the fact that they proposed to do this work for $4,046.88, the contract was certified for $20,000, and there was paid the sum of That in addition to the amount paid McKeever &

Bro, have claims unpaid amounting to $2,473.80." The report also points out that, while the price for cleaning sewer basins under the first contract was 45 cents, under the second it was only 15 cents. These figures, the experts say, are exceedingly low, and it is doubtful if the work can be done for the amounts named. In conclusion the report as as dusion the report says:

clusion the report says:

"Under the advertisement for proposals for cleaning sawers, &c., for the balance of the year, the estimated number of sewer basins was 12,000, and the number cleaned, as appears by the Ulls rend-red on secons of this last mentioned contract, was only $,168; so that we find that the estimated number to be cleaned under both contracts was 16,000, and that the bills presented and audited under these contracts abowed that only 4,587 had been cleaned. In addition the contractors received payment for 1,988 sawer basins, making a total of sower basins cleaned during the year by these contracters 6,525."

In a letter to a friend, Thomas Gordon of Lake Hovatcong, Spangler writes:

"Do you suppose that I killed Renner? No, not on your life. You will find out who murdered him before long. It was not me. That is all I have to say about the case; but, Tom, I was there when he got murdered, and that is what made me get into the scrape. He got murdered for going with some kirl he had no right to, and this girl's brother is the one who killed Renner."

The detectives believe that Spangler is guilty of the murder, and they expect to arrest him in a few days.

The De Kalb avenue trolley line in Brooklyn conductors. The new stripes are of gilt braid gaen who have worked for the company five years or more. One atripe is given for each five years. The broad gilt bands are attached to the right sleeve at the cuff and give a very natty appearance to the dark blue coat. While many of the men have two, three, and four stripes there are only two who have more than the latter number. Each is a motorman and each has six stripes, indicating thirty years of service. One of these men, Themas Hisgan, helped build the road, and at its comulction drove one of the first care over the line. He lacks only a year and some months of his seventh stripe. The other six-stripe man is John Stiner, who also will receive his seventh stripe soon. Service stripes have also been introduced on the Jay street line. men who have worked for the company flys

Rear Admiral Montgomery Sleard, President of the Naval Strategy Board at Washington, testified yesterday morning at the navy yard in Brooklyn at the Menocal court-martial, He said he was commandant of the yard from November, 1894, to May, 1897, during which peried Mr. Menocal had been Chief Engineer of the Department of Yards and Docks. He agreed with Mr. Menocal that he did not have assistance enough to do the large amount of work required of him. The scope of his duties work required of him. The scope of his duties included everything in the way of yard work from the supervisies of the construction of the big dry dook to the repairing of a drilin. In addition to this Mr. Menocal was frequently called upon to serve on special boards which were held outside the city, and necessitated his absence from the yard. The witness had at all times found Mr. Menocal industrious and attentive to his outles.

absence from the yard. The witness had at all times found Mr. Menocal industrious and attentive to his outles.

On cross-examination Admiral Sicard admitted that he had felt dissatisfied with Mr. Menocal in regard to the repairing of the calsen of dry dock No. 2. In making the repairs it became necessary to take out the ballast, and when some of it had been removed Mr. Menocal got leave of absence and the next senior officer took his place. When most of the ballast had been removed the calseon rose from its place and the water being admitted did considerable damage. The witness thought at the time that Mr. Menocal had not been sufficiently alive to the possibility of the accident and that he should have warned his successor of the danger involved in the removal of too much ballast. With this exception he had always found Mr. Menocal an efficient officer. The witness testified further that Mr. Menocal's health was generally poor and incapacitated him from what might be regarded as full and strict attention to his duties. might be regarded as full and strict attention to his duties.

Directly after giving his testimony Admiral Sleard hurried back to his duties at Washing-ton.

THE AERIAL LADDER BROKE. Six Firemen Injured at a $100,000 Fire in Greenpoint. More than $100,000 damage was caused by two fires in Greenpoint yesterday morning. The first started in Jack Skelly's saloon and concert hall, at 142 Greenpoint avenue, and spread to Michael Schultz's furniture store at 140 Greenpoint avenue, Louis Chevallier's plane wareroom at 138, the Greenpoint Sporting Club's headquarters at 136, Wynan Dubois's art studio and P. The second fire started in an old, unoccupied three-story frame building in the rear of 112 Calyer street.

started in an old, uneccupied three-story frame building in the rear of 112 Calyer street. There were four four-story double tenement flats at 108, 110, 112 and 114 Calyer street. The fire extended to Eckstein Brothers' paint works, fronting on Meserole avenue.

The tenants in the four flat houses had been aroused. There was a panic, and many of the inmates, in their auxisty to escape to the street, feil. When the firemen arrived the flames had reached the flats. An aerial ladder was raised in front of the house at 112 Calyer street. Six firemen were on the ladder when it broke and the men fell. John Carter, aged 35, was injured internally. He was taken to the Eastern District Hospital. Charles Garvin, aged 29, of 266 South Second street, and William Thomas, aged 33, of 519 Leonard street, were also hurt. They were taken to their homes. Foreman Fitzgerald of Truck 6 and Assistant Foreman Readenberg were cut and bruised. They resumed duty after their wounds were bandaged. The fire spread to Franklin street, where it caught buildings occupied by the Gilhardt Wagon Manufacturing Company, Frank Carr's trucking office, and Bail & Jewell's machine shop. These buildings were partly burned. The four flats, the unoccupied house and the paint works were destroyed.

PASTOR FINCH SUSTAINED.

Trustees Who Wanted to Force His Resignation Balked by the Congregation.

Last March at a meeting of the trustees of the Noble Street Baptist Church in Greenpoint it was resolved that at the annual meeting in May they should recommend that the salary of the pastor, the Rev. J. J. Finch, should be reduced from $1,500 to $1,200. Mr. Finch, it is said, then requested the trustees to postpone the annual meeting until June. The understanding annual meeting until June. The understanding of Trustees Albert Perry and J. W. Woodward was that the pastor would resign on July 31 if his salary was kept at $1,500. The trustees reached the resolution which asked for a reduction of the pastor's salary.

Mr. Finch recently informed Mr. Perry that he had decided not to resign. He added that members of the church urged him to the step. A general meeting was called by the trustees for Friday night last, at which Trustee Thomas Foulks moved that the Rev. Mr. Finch be asked to resign. An animated debate enaued. When the motion was put to a vote of the congregation Mr. Finch received 133 in favor of his remaining the pastor and 19 against it. The result was hailed with appliance. Trustee Foulks then asked that his own relations with the church be severed, and Trustee Woodward did the same.

The wife of the Rev. Mr. Finch lives at Fall River, Mass. because she dislikes Brooklyn, and it is alleged that Mr. Finch's frequent visits to her bas become objectionable to the frustees, who believe their paster could use the time so spent more advantageously for the church.
